Community

Located in the Connecticut River Valley, 100 miles west of Boston, 27 miles northwest of Springfield; small middle income towns located in Hampshire County, home of Amherst College, Hampshire College, Mount Holyoke College, Smith College, and the University of Massachusetts.

School

Six-year comprehensive regional school (Grades 7 – 12) serving the towns of Chesterfield, Goshen, Southampton, Westhampton, and Williamsburg. Accredited by New England Association of Schools and Colleges. Enrollment in 2010 – 2011 (Grades 9 – 12) = 529. Senior class (Class of 2011) = 136.

Curriculum

Six credits per year are required for most full time students. HRHS runs a seven period traditional schedule. Most science courses emphasize laboratory involvement.

HRHS also offers an independent study program for motivated students to research or study a selected learning area or topic on an independent basis. Additionally, seniors can elect to participate in an internship experience to learn more about a professional field of interest. Student interns spend a minimum of four non-paid hours per week for a semester or for a school year observing a professional in the community.

Juniors and seniors are eligible to participate in the Joint Admissions or Early College programs. Both programs include taking college courses for high school and college credit. Students taking college courses in the Joint Admissions program take some of their courses at HRHS and some at a local accredited college. Courses offered at HRHS cannot be taken at a college under the Joint Admissions umbrella. Students in the Early College program take all of their courses at a local accredited college.

Class Rank
